Kino Sports Complex to host Fort Lowell Shootout matches, national high school baseball tournament this weekend

About 400 high school baseball players from across and outside the U.S. will compete in the Under Armour All-America Pre-Season Tournament Jan. 17-19 at Kino Sports Complex South.

The North Stadium, North Grandstand and four other Kino Sports Complex North soccer fields will be the venue for matches Saturday and Sunday in the Tucson Association of Realtors (formerly Fort Lowell) Shootout.

The Shootout, now in its 24th year, attracts thousands of soccer players in under-8 to under-14 age groups, their families and fans from Arizona, New Mexico, Texas and Mexico. Kino is one of 12 match locations across the Tucson metro area.

The Under Armour tournament brings players from as far away as the Virgin Islands; Hawaii; Culiacan, Mexico; Vancouver, B.C.; and Quebec, Canada.

Local players include Bradley Gonzales, Marana; Jacob Northrup, Sahuaro High School; and Nathan Soriano, Canyon del Oro High School.

Admission is free to all events. A printable Kino Sports Complex map is attached.
