Tickets on sale for former Tucson Padres games on April 11-14 at Kino Sports Complex

Tickets are on sale for Triple-A baseball games on April 11-14 at Kino Veterans Memorial Stadium between the former Tucson Padres – now the El Paso Chihuahuas – and the Reno Aces.

The Chihuahuas' owner, MountainStar Sports Group, opted to move the team from Tucson to El Paso after the 2013 season, but the $64 million stadium under construction there will not be ready for what would have been the first home games of the 2014 season.

In anticipation of that scenario, MountainStar requested an extension of the team's contract with the Pima County Stadium District until Oct. 31, 2014. The Board of Supervisors approved the extension in September.

Game times are 7:05 p.m. on Friday, April 11, and Saturday, April 12; 1:05 p.m. on Sunday, April 13; and 6:35 p.m. on Monday, April 14.

Ticket prices start at $7 for general admission and $10 for box seats. Tickets are $5 for students ages 6 to 16, seniors ages 55 and older, and military. Admission is free for children under age 6.

Tickets are on sale now at the Kino Stadium Box Office 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday. You can also call (520) 434-1367 for more information.

Kino Sports Complex is the largest venue in Pima County for youth, amateur and professional sports, concerts, and community events. The south baseball complex includes the 11,000-seat Kino Veterans Memorial Stadium, seven full-size fields, three clubhouses and parking. The north soccer complex includes the 2,900-seat North Stadium, which is home to the FC Tucson soccer club, a 1,000-seat North Grandstand field, four additional fields, and a clubhouse with parking.
