Kino Baseball League

Summer baseball competition is heating up the Old Pueblo with youth baseball league play scheduled practically every evening on the South Quad at Kino Sports Complex. This year the competition includes three divisions: Babe Ruth 13-15, Connie Mack 18U, and the Sun Belt Collegiate Division, which includes two teams from New Mexico, all hosted by Kino Baseball League.

Over 50 teams compete in the three leagues; all games are open to the public and begin at 5 p.m. or later. On Saturdays and Sundays they also have games at 8:30 and 11 a.m. Admission is only $2 at the gate, the snack bar is open and there are plenty of bleacher seats to watch the games. For more information regarding the times and dates for each of the league games visit www.kinobaseball.com.

Coming in July, Kino Baseball will host two National Babe Ruth Baseball tournaments at Kino Sports Complex: the Babe Ruth Division 14U tentatively scheduled for July 12-14 and the Pacific Southwest 15U Babe Ruth Regionals on July 27-31. The regional tournament includes teams from Arizona, California, Nevada, Utah, Hawaii, and Guam! The winner will advance to the World Series in Loudoun County, Va.
